SOMME FRONT FIGHTING MOST DESPERATE OF WAR

Rumania Again on the Offensive and Are Pushing Teutonic Forces Back Across Transylvania Border—Fighting on the Somme Front Is Very Desperate—The French Claim to Have Repulsed all German Attacks With Heavy Losses to the Germans—The Germans Claim to Have Beaten the French at Some Points on the Somme Front—Celebrated German Aviator Reported Wounded.

London, Oct. 18.—The Rumanian troops in the Predal region, southwest of Kronstadt, have resumed the offensive and are driving back the Teutonic forces on the Transylvania side of the border, says the official statement issued at Bucharest this afternoon.

Three times last night the Germans delivered attacks on the French positions in Sailly Salles, on the Somme front, says the Paris war office, but the French maintained all their positions and inflicted heavy losses on the Germans.

Near Bery-en-Santerre the Germans gained a footing in the French first line trenches, but were driven out.

French attacks on Morvil and Rancourt, north of the Somme river, were repulsed yesterday after hard fighting, says the German official statement today. British and French attacks near Thiep Hill, Courcelette and Borchavesnes also failed.

TEXAS CATTLE MAN GAINS RELEASE

George Miers, Arrested With Jo Wilmet of Chicago at Sabinas, Mexico, Makes Bond of $600.

Del Rio, Tex., Oct. 18.—George Miers, American cattle man, who with Jo Wilmet, Chicago banker, was arrested for alleged violation of export customs regulations in Mexico and placed in jail by the military officials at Sabinas, Mexico, arrived here Tuesday, having been released under a bond of $600, Mexican silver. Mexican military authorities originally demanded a bond of $10,000 gold, but through the efforts of the state department at Washington the case was transferred from military to Mexican civil courts, where bail was reduced.

Miers was arrested Oct. 2 with Jo Wilmet. Wilmet was released without filing of formal charges, but Miers' case assumed international proportions, and his release on bond followed diplomatic exchanges between Washington and City of Mexico.

NEGRO BAPTISTS IN CONVENTION

Forty-First Annual Convention of Missionary Baptists Opens Today in Austin.

(By Associated Press.)
Austin, Texas, Oct. 18.—The forty-first annual session of the Missionary Baptists' general convention of Texas and its auxiliaries, one of the largest negro religious bodies in the South, was opened here today, to continue to October 23.

This is a negro missionary organization which has worked on the plan that "the help most helpful to the negro is the help that enables him to help himself." Extensive aid has been given the work by Col. George W. Breckenridge of San Antonio, who has altogether donated about $50,000 in money and 250 acres of land, on which have been erected modern buildings for use in the missionary work. This missionary organization has built and now supports the Central Texas College at Waco, valued at $90,000; Boyd Industrial Institute at Oakwood, valued at $30,000, and St. John's Industrial Institute and Orphanage at Austin, valued at $250,000.

DEPARTMENT STORE FIXTURES BOUGHT

Sam B. Wilson & Co. Place Order for Modern Fixtures to Be Installed Next January.

Announcement was made several days ago that Bryan would right after the first of January have a complete and modern department store, to be opened by Sam B. Wilson & Co.

As a further evidence of this fact it was learned from a traveling man this morning, who represents one of the largest fixture concerns in the United States, that this firm has placed with his company an order for about five carloads of the most modern fixtures used in a department store. This gentleman informed an Eagle man that Sam B. Wilson & Co. had spared no expense in buying the equipment and when everything was completed they would be as elegantly equipped as any store in Texas.

The success of this popular firm can be attributed to many sources, among which might be mentioned the fact that the Daily Eagle never appears without an advertisement from this firm, telling the people of their high class merchandise, and they are conscientious in their advertising, keeping absolute faith with their patrons.
